Policy on the Appointment and Remuneration of Directors

1. Purpose

The purpose 'of this policy Is to set out, in accordance with Section 57 (1) of the Local Government Act 2002 ("the Act"), an objective and transparent process for:

- Identification; i;ld conideration of the skills, knowledge and experience required of directors of a ccjuncil o <anisation; and
- Appointment of' directe: r s to a council organisation; and
- Remuneration (If direct; )rs of a council organisation.

Notes:

- A "council or~ranisaticln" is an organisation where the council has an ownership interest, :~nclud~ng the I ight to control one or more of the votes at any meeting of the members or cc)irtrolliii;~ body of the organisation, g has the right to appoint one or more of the directors.
- O'Director' encc mpasse -, other terms commonly associated with membership of a governing body e.g. Tr istee.

2. Principles

The followin:!; principles urclerlic this policy:

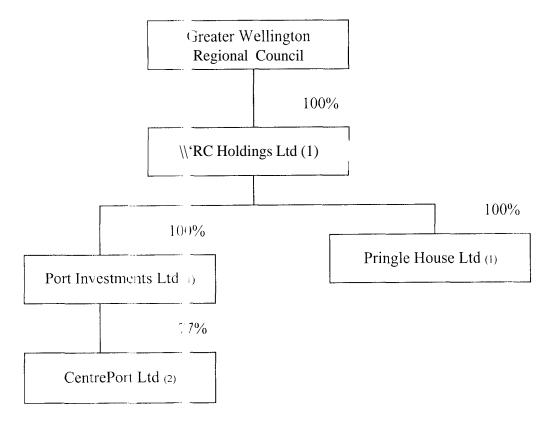

- Appointments will continue to be made on the basis of skills, knowledge or experience having regard to the iiature of the council organisation and the Council's overall objectives.
- The Council will cont;rtue to appoint common boards of directors for Council's three council controlled tracling organisations, WRC Holdings Ltd, Pringle House Ltd and Port Investments Ltd,, is it makes practical sense to do so.
- Where practrcable, lirector appointments will continue to be made at the commencement of cat 1 I triennium.
- The Council \rill con1 iiue to use an objective and transparent process to make director appointments. while 1~ otecting the privacy of natural persons.

3. Council Controlled Trading Organisations (CCTOs)

3.1 Introduction

The Council':;, holding comlrany, WRC Holdings Ltd, is the main mechanism used by the Council to manage I Its equit 8. investments.

The Council has thl: followirig equity investments in the WRC Holdings Group:

- (1) A council controller* organisation in accordance with the Local Government Act 2002.
- (2) A Port Company ptlrsuant to the Port Companies Act 1988 and therefore not a council controlled or:lanisation in accordance with the Local Government Act 2002.

3.2 Identification of requirt?d skills, knowledge and experience of CCTO directors

Given the nature #.)f the liolding company and the assets for which the directors are accountable, the (.'ouncit considers that it is important to have a majority of elected members on the bejard of thirectors of WRC Holdings Ltd. This ensures the Council has direct control in ;iddition io other indirect control it can exercise through the company Constitution and SStatemen! of Intent.

As there are natul-al linkajles and as the three companies, WRC Holdings Ltd, Pringle House Ltd and Port lnves~ments Ltd meet at the same time it makes sense to have a common boar'd of directors ior all three companies.

Each triennium the Council Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson and one other Councillor are appointed to the boards of tllcse companies. The Council Chairperson is the Chairperson of each of the cornpar es.

The remaining positions on the boards of Council's CCTO's are filled using the following process:

- (a) Determine,~ion of Ihe detailed process for selection of suitable candidates is delegated to a Screisning Group comprising:
  - Council Chairpeison
  - Council I)eputy 1 'hairperson
  - Council Secretar 1

The Screening GIN )up can determine if other input (e.g. external assistance) is required.

- (b) Identificall~.~n of poltential directors includes direct approach, advertisement or both (to be determined I jy the Screening Group).
- Screening of potet ,lial directors (including conducting interviews) is conducted by the Screening Grol Ip, seeking the following key attributes:
  - Intfepentience
  - Integritli
  - Ability lo analyci*, question and apply judgement
  - Competence
  - Ability to devote time and attention to entity
  - Good pcj-sonal si<sub>x</sub> ills
  - Leadersi: ip and :5trategic thought
  - Common sense
  - Previous experir nce as a director

The 15creening Group reports its recommendations to the Council via the Policy, Finatce at Strate-gy Committee for approval prior to any appointments being made.

3.3 Remuneration of CCTO Directors

Elected members ~~~110 arc also directors of the companies receive travelling expenses based on the rates applicable to m::mbers of the Council. Directors of the Companies who are not elected members of' the C'cbuncil will receive Directors' fees as approved by the Council from time to time, III addition to travel expenses.

Periodically, normal.ly ever, three years, the Council will review the level of remuneration applicable to Ihe position 01 director of Council's CCTO's.

In performing its review of 'I emuneration the Council will, normally on the basis of external advice, take ~CCOUII'I. of the I ollowing factors:

- Zero The need to attract and etain appropriately qualified directors.
- The nature of activities Imdertaken by each of the companies.
- The extent of input exp cted from independent directors.
- The synergy achieved t c om effectively running the three companies closely together.

The Council also supports [he payment by CCTO's of directors' liability insurance and the indemnification of director,.

4. CentrePoirt

4.1 Introduction

Although CentrePort is not a council controlled organisation, the policies covering the appointment and remuneral Ion of directors are similar. It therefore makes sense to include CentrePort within t'tiis polil y framework.

CentrePort operates much in the same way as a CCTO with a non-executive board of directors.

4.2 Identification of required skills, knowledge and experience of CentrePort Directors

The mix of skills and exp,rience on the CentrePort Board will be reviewed from time to time and consider, ation given to complementing and reinforcing existing skills where necessary.

'The required skills, knowlccl~e and experience for director appointments to CentrePort are *assessed in the first instance I)y a Screening Group comprising:

- The Chairperson of Port Investments Ltd

- Good personal bItills
- Leadership and strategic thought
- « Common sense
- Previous IexperIence as I director

Elected members calf the (ouncil are not considered for appointment to the Board of CentrePort Ltd.

The Screening Gr.)up will report its recommendations to both shareholders for approval prior to any a.ppointment bt rng made.

Existing Directors rroutincly retire by rotation and offer themselves for re-election at the company's Annual IGeneral Meeting. Re-election is considered in the context of:

Whether t.he sk11ls of th. incumbent add value to the Board

- Whether there are other ,.)kills the Board needs
- Succession issues

4.3 Remuneration o,f CentrePort Directors

Each year a.( the Annual General Meeting the shareholders approve the level of remuneration for the directors of CentrePort. Where necessary, the Council will seek external advice in relation to exercising a judgement about the appropriateness of the remuneration being ,sought.

The remuneration is review(*d in the context of industry and other commercial practice and trends.

5. Wellington Regional Stadium Trust

5.1 introduction

The current legal \ratus of the Trust is unclear. While it is not certain if the Trust is a council controlled I,rganis:irion it makes sense to include the Stadium Trust within this policy framework.

The Council jointI:! appoi,its trustees with the Wellington City Council pursuant to the Trust Deed.

To qualify, a trustee must I?(* a resident of the Wellington Region.

5.2 Identification o,f required skills, knowledge and experience of Stadium Trustees

The mix of skills ,.md exlberience on the Trust Board is reviewed at least annually and consideration give11 to conlplementing and reinforcing existing skills and reducing known weaknesses where necessat v.

The required skill:;. knowl~~dge and experience of trustees appointed to the Stadium Trust are assessed :in the first instance by the Stadium Trust Chairperson in conjunction with the two settlers ('WCL'WRC).

In general terms the following qualities are sought in the trustees of the Stadium Trust:

- Ex Intellectual ab: 1:ity
- Commercial/bIl!;iness c xperience
- Understanding I.)f govea nance issues
- Execution Entrepreneurial flair

- Sound judgemen t
- High standard of 'person I I integrity
- ∠ Understanding the wide* interests of the two settlor Councils

Of the trustees appointed 10 the Trust Board at any one time, the two settlers can appoint one Councillor from each Council to help ensure the interests of the two settlers are protected and to as:;lst comrrunication between the Trust and the settlers.

Recommendations Ibr appointment of trustees are made to each Council prior to any appointment being made.

Each year existing trustees I outinely retire by rotation and offer themselves for re-election. Re-election is considered in the context of:

- Whether l.he skills ol'th. incumbent add value to the Trust Board
- Whether there ;~re 0th~ <kills the Trust Board needs
- Succession issues

5.3 Remuneration elf Stadium Trustees

From time to time the scale of payments to trustees is reviewed by the two settlers. Where necessary the: Council will cek external advice on this matter.

All trustees (incllt,,hng ('1 uncillors) are subject to the same payment basis with the exception of l.he Tn~st ('hai I who receives proportionately more consistent with the role.

6. Council Orgamisations (CO's)

6.1 Introduction

The Council has r on-contt oiling interests in numerous CO's. These are generally not-for-profit bodies and appointnt~nts to CO's are made for a number of reasons. These include:

- To enable Courcil invc~lyement where the CO's activity is relevant to the Council,
- To satisfy a request frog II the CO that the Council appoint a representative,
- Statutory requirements

Appointments to a CO arc' generally for a three year term, and are made after the triennial Council elections.

The Council Icndeavours to minimise the number of appointments where the benefit to the Council of sulch an :tppointnlent is minimal.

6.2 Identification of required skills, knowledge and experience of CO directors

The range of reasons for tllc appointment of Council representatives to CO's results in a wider range o'f desired attril!utes for appointees to these bodies.

The Council determines the required skills, knowledge and experience for each appointment in accordance. with the nature of the entity and the role to be fulfilled. Candidates are not restricted to Councillors - in some cases, it may be more appropriate to appoint Council staff or ext rnal people with affiliations to the Council.

The Council Chairlerson rrrakes recommendations to the full Council for final approval prior to any appoint trents bing made.

6.3 Remuneration of CO directors

CO directors apper nted by the Council receive the remuneration (if any) offered by that body. However, i-i' such di I cctors are Councillors, they are only entitled to receive normal Council travelling allowan, es. The same applies to Council staff members appointed to such bodies.
